Confessions Of A Working Girl

Confessions Of A Working Girl is a saucy novel that allows an insight into a completely new world! It opened my eyes and erased the stigma surrounding bordellos and the workers that occupied them. It tackled the profession with brutal honesty and integrity without being over zealous.

Confessions Of A Working Girl by Miss S. - Goodreads

In Confessions of a Working Girl or How to Get Laid (Off), hilarious standup comedian and unorthodox mom Doreen Collins keeps her sense of humor while job-hopping and reinventing herself. She's deejayed at the disco, served doughnuts at Dunkin', sold vacuum cleaners door to door, and worked the drag queen revue circuit.

Directed by Hugo Haas. With Cleo Moore, Hugo Haas, Glenn Langan, Helene Stanton. Another of the "Fate and Irony" films from director-writer-producer-actor Hugo Haas but this one has less hair-shirt torment than most of his offerings, although his camera, as usual, lingers provocatively on the contours of the leading lady and, in this case, the leading lady is more than well-contoured.
