Mortal Danger And Other True

This is the best Ann Rule book I've read. I felt that in her other true-crime books, her writing was stilted and dry. It was hard to get involved in the stories and worse yet, hard to care about the people. This one, feels more like she's telling the stories of the victims. I worry about women in the first story - Mortal Danger.

Mortal Danger and Other True Cases eBook online Read

Mortal Danger is a collection of true crime cases. Rule attempts to humanize the people involved in the cases, including victims, perpetrators and detectives. While many of these people are probably just like you and me, not terribly dramatic or compelling, Rule manages to "interpret" these people in a way that comes off inauthentic.
