“One of the marvelous things about community is that it enables us to welcome and help people in a way we couldn't as individuals. When we pool our strength and share the work and responsibility, we can welcome many people, even those in deep distress, and perhaps help them find self-confidence and inner healing.”

There is wisdom in my mind, and there is wisdom in my heart. The wisdom of my mind is very good, but it's nothing. It's deep, but it doesn't get there. You cannot know G-d just with the wisdom of your mind. You have to know G-d with the wisdom of your heart. Because the heart is the deepest depth there is. Good and Evil

Wisdom in Times of Crisis The Wisdom of Job Tuesday, July 7, 2020 Theology does not by itself provide wisdom in crisis. All theology must become a living spirituality to really change us or the world. It's disappointing that we Christians have emphasized theology, catechism, and religious education much more than prayer and practice. The... Continue Reading The Wisdom of Job
