Witch Wars is full of adventure, remarkable characters, dangerous quests, and of course love. One thing I look for in books is original, unpredictable storytelling because I like a book that pulls me in from the first page and doesn't let me go. Witch Wars is a beautifully written book with perfectly crafted sentences that flow without conscious ...

Witch Wars (Underlayes #1) by T.A. Moorman

Oh, how to describe 'Witch Wars'? Well, if 'The Worst Witch' and 'The Hunger Games' had a baby which was raised in the settings of every Saturday morning cartoon imaginable, one after another, whilst high on whatever is keeping the Looney Tunes alive and tripping, then 'Witch Wars' might be the spectacular, cracking and goofy result.

A witch was a female user of magic who tended to use the Dark side of the Force. Witches were found in primitive cultures where the concept of the Force was known as magic. The Dathomirian Witches were an order of witches as were the Mind-witches. Sith sorceresses were also alternatively referred to as witches.
